Section 2. Suspension. If annual payment is not paid or declined and restitution is not made within 30 days after date of obligation, SGM may, at its discretion, suspend member's membership. Monthly dues will continue to accrue until member or SGM cancels membership. Member is responsible for full payment of current dues; all accumulated past dues to date and the remaining balance of contract. Such amount is due and payable immediately. If payment of past and current dues is made in full, membership will be reinstated to active status. If no payment is made, SGM may turn the account over to a collection agency. SGM shall be entitled to all costs of collection, including attorney's fees, in the event of any default hereunder.

Section 3. Involuntary Cancellation. SGM reserves the right at any time to revoke the membership or privileges there under of any member for failure to comply with any of the rules and regulations of SGM or for any conduct SGM deems to be improper. The membership of any member who is more than 30 days past due on his/her account may, at SGM's discretion, be cancelled. The membership may be terminated by written notification mailed to the last address on SGM records for member being cancelled. A cancelled member will remain liable for all balances incurred prior to membership termination.
